

November 2005 Newsletter

Meeting Information

The meeting was short on attendance but things were accomplished. The 2006 RAF Officers were decided and the announcement will be at the next meeting December 7th meeting which is also the club Christmas Party!

Also, effective January 1st, 2006 the RAF annual club dues will be increased to $25.00 per year with junior fees remaining at $5.00. The new fee increase was approved and amended in the club By-Laws .

On another note the club welcomes all new comers to the flying field. Most importantly any new member and existing members must maintain current membership with the AMA in order to fly amongst the RAF or any club.

Christmas Party

The RAF Annual Christmas Party is going to take place December 7th, 2005 at Pasta Café at 7:00 p.m. RAF has reserved enough seating to accommodate 30-40 people. You can order anything off the menu and separate checks will be available.

This year we will also have the White Elephant Gift giving for club members and the ladies. The dollar limit will be $25.00 per gift.

Lets all show up and have some fun!

